An Automobile Accident.

A bad accident occurred Saturday at the corner of Williams and Forest, when the automobile driven by Hans Jurgenson, of the west side, crashed into the buggy driven by Mrs. Al Mayes, of the south side. Mrs. Mayes and four children, was driving north on Williams street as Mr. Jurgenson was driving into town from the west when the accident occurred. The buggy was badly demolished, but none of the occupants were seriously hurt.

Mr. Jurgenson had the storm curtains on his auto and did not see the buggy until he had struck it. Mr. Jurgenson took all the blame for the accident and is thankful that the accident was not more serious.
